

HONOR CODE

Cheating, plagiarizing or copying other's work is considered dishonest and will not be tolerated. Students will receive an honor code to sign at the beginning of class. This code is an agreement between the student and the school that the student has not received or given any information regarding exams, projects or class assignments. Any breach of this code will lead to termination from the University.